The Ambassadors of the E.A.B.I.C., Hon. Priest Federico Calvo, Hon. Priest Heraldo Carvacho, Hon. Priest Rodrigo Calderon and Hon. Empress Jocelyn Encinas, went to the Human Rights Office of the United Nations in Chile (CEPAL) on February 10 of the present year to an interview with the High Commissioner of Human Rights, Mrs. Margarita Uprimny.

When we reach to the previously arranged meeting date we were informed that Mrs. Uprimny was presently out of office due to her being sick, and would not be able to meet with us on that day, However her personal secretary told us that a new interview will be arranged very soon.

Furthermore we received and interviewed with Mariano Barros, who is Counselor of Security of the Human Rights Office.

The Agenda for the interview was the following:

1. Reasoning about our Freedom, Redemption and International Repatriation through Human Rights.
2. Present in a formal way the 17 pages Repatriation document, the 4 point Agenda and the Black Supremacy book.
3. Arrange an interview with members of the E.A.B.I.C. Royal Committee in Jamaica with the High Commissioner.

Concerning to the Agenda for this interview:

1. We met for about 2 hour with Mr. Barros about the works of our Congress in Chile as well as worldwide and about our cause and what really means Freedom, Redemption and International Repatriation through the Human Rights and about many common interests to both Organizations.

During the meeting Mr. Barros suggested in two occasions that the E.A.B.I.C. and the U.N. must form an alliance, to establish a network on the topic of our common interests, as the promotion and defense of the Human Rights and strength the Congress in future Conferences and Cultural Events in the defense of our international cause of Freedom, Redemption and International Repatriation. We approached the contact in a fluid way to continue working.

2. The documents of Freedom, Redemption and International Repatriation were left in the Office of the High Commissioner. His personal secretary sent us an email with a scanned copy of the received documents.

In this way, we have constancy that the document were received properly and are filed in the archives of her portfolio.

3. The arrangement of a formal interview with the Royal Committee of the EABIC in Jamaica it's still pendent until we can meet personally with the High Commissioner.

Mr. Barros told us that he will help us to arrange a new interview as soon as possible and that he will talk with the High Commissioner about our meeting.
